

I like the Indiana no call list the way it is. I do not want telephone ads or commercials from anyone including my banks. This undesired effort from the banking industry to reinvade our privacy should be dismissed.